BERRY'S FINANCIAL REPORT

The semi-monthly financial report issued by Berry's Commercial Agency has the following to say of current events:

This semi-monthly is not encouraging in all respects. Complaints are made about the tightness of the money market. Collections are slow; creditors are limited because of stress of circumstances. There is a manifest disposition to meet demands, and yet financial disability for liquidation. The streets are haunted by rumors that so-and-so would fail, or foreclosures would take place here and there, but chasing them down to facts, they were found to be mixed with hot air.

Street rumors that local financial institutions were charging 9 per cent on renewals have some foundation. We are informed by local bankers that they could loan all they wanted at 10 per cent on first-class security. This plain statement should not be discouraging, because all business to a greater or less extent depends on confidence.

Building continues quite active. Those furnishing supplies are of course doing a good business.

Mortgage indebtedness is increasing, and yet this increase does not indicate shortage, but is purely the excretion of deals indicating future confidence.

Banker Damon found a very happy condition of affairs among the Kona coffee planters. They are receiving one cent (1c) more per pound for their product than was paid this time last year. The stockholders of the Nahuiku Sugar Company, at a special meeting held recently, authorized the leasing of the Nahuiku water rights to the Hana Plantation Company for an annual payment of five thousand dollars ($5000). This will yield a 6 per cent return to the stockholders on their investment.

Articles incorporating the Union Land Co., Ltd., will be filed with the government within a few days. The company will capitalize for one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), and its purpose will be to fill in 291 lots makal of King street, between Pili and Sheridan streets. The estimated cost of the filling is estimated at thirty-five cents (35c) per cubic yard. Cotton Bros. are considering the proposition of filling in with dredgings from the harbor. The proposed officers of the company are: A. F. Judd, president; W. R. Castle, Jr., treasurer and manager; B. M. Landsale, secretary.

The Honolulu Paint & Wall Paper Co., Ltd., with a capitalization of twenty-five thousand dollars, will be organized this week. This corporation will absorb a similar concern in this city which has been doing a good business. Collectors say last month's collections were slower than in previous months during the depression. These times are very trying on the nerves of the bill collector.

There seems to be an abundance of money seeking gilt-edged real estate mortgages. It is also reported by some stock brokers that bankers with capital are beginning to make advances on sugar share securities.

The financial difficulty with the Oregon Building Company is now being considered by the creditors. It is probable that a settlement satisfactory to all will be evolved.

Persistent rumors are afloat that the McCully-Higgins suit, which occupied the attention of Judge Humphreys' court the greater part of last week, will be settled out of court.

Sugar share quotations and plantation bond prices are quite clearly shown in the February sales, as follows: 1218 Ewa at $23.50 to $24.00; 100 Hawaiian Sugar Co. at $26.75; 5 Honolulu at $11.00; 137 Kihel at $11.00 to $11.25; 45 Oahu at $9.00; 80 Oolaka at $8.00; 33 Olua, assessable, at $5.50 to $6.00; 530 Olua, paid-up, at $13.00 to $13.75; 96 Waiakala at $25.50 to $26.00; 108 Oahu Railway and Land Co. at $30.00; 500 Oahu Railway and Land Co. bonds at $104.25; 1000 Oahu Plantation bonds at $100; 100 Waiakala Agricultural Co. bonds at $101.50.

The Dividends paid today include: Brewer & Co., 1 per cent. Kahuku, 1 per cent. Waimanalo, 7 per cent. Ewa, 1 per cent. Oahu, 1/2 per cent. Olowalu, 1/2 per cent. Hawaiian Electric, 1/2 per cent.
